Raoul Wallenberg Group B

A Lake Township man has formed a local chapter of the Raoul Wallenberg Committee of the United States to keep alive the story of the Swedish diplomat credited with saving 100,000 Hungarian Jews from Nazi death camps during World War II.

Robert Karp said the purpose of the organization is to preserve Mr. Wallenberg's story as a "symbol of a person of great moral courage to defy danger that confronts him and to help those who are helpless."

Mr. Wallenberg was last seen in January, 1945, after Soviet troops entered Budapest. The Soviet government has said he died in 1947 in a Moscow prison, but the Swedish government and others have said that if he is not alive, he died long after the war.

As its first act, the group sent a telex message to Ambassador Arthur M. M. Moscow.

It read:

"Aug. 4, 1986, 7th
Raoul Wallenberg, h citizen.

"On this occasion, Ohio Chapter, Wallenberg of U.S. expresses our honorary fellow Raoul Wallenberg, who saved thousands of Budapest Jews from Nazi murder, is still alive after more than 41 years in Soviet custody.

"Chapter urgently desires details of whereabouts, condition, Raoul Wallenberg.

"Signed, Wallenberg
